KEYSTONE.

(By Paul C. Morse.)

Mrs. H. G. Rocque and daughter Blosson had a slight illness the past week. They are up and around some now but not as peppy as usual.

E. H. Stevens of Harbor boulevard arrived here the first of the week from Akson, Ohio. Mr. Stevens was an engineer on the B. & O. for several years.

Mrs. Charles Vogel was confined to her bed a few days last week, from an attack of paralysis.

Roy Berry has had a grouch on for several daays now. The cause of all this is, the long delay in getting his new Chevrolet.

Bert Nidever made a business trip to San Francisco last week returning Saturday. He is State Fish Commissioner of this district.

Z. W. Jennings was the recipient of several fine birthday presents the other evening. A big chicken dinner, with a cake, big enough to hold fifty-six candles, but only thirty-six were on it, was the fine lot the guests sat down to.

Harry Rocque camoaged his old Ford with a new coat of paint and putty. You can't see or hear him coming now.

Mrs. Nettie Neishang of Normandie avenue rented her place last Monday to Mr. Weff, from Delta, Utah. Mrs. Neishang will leave for Kansas City, her former home in a short time.

Mrs. M. H. Galamore returned the first of the week from New York, where she has been visiting the past five months. Mr. Galamore has been working night and day to get his house in shape for her return. He is building a fine two story, brick, veneer. Using a grey brick.

Mr. Nidever and family motored over to Montrose last Sunday to see his father, who has been laid up with a severe attack of the shingles. He is getting much better but had a very close call.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

A number of children had a most glorious evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Trefey of Cota avenue, Monday evening, at a party given for their granddaughter Isabelle Saunders.

The color scheme for the decorations were orange and black, with pumpkin faces, witches, black cats and goblins and the "ghost sure did walk." A knock was heard at the door and a very tall ghost entered, and helped in the entertainment of the evening. The children enjoyed games, fancy dancing, music, singing and refreshments of ice cream and cake. The guests were De De Barnard, Lois Zuver, Elizabeth Hellon, Olive Hellon, Rosalind Paige, Myrtle Bacon, Frances Haynes, Newel Wayt, Genevive Barton, Beatrice Hughes, Georgia Stevenson, Cornelia Hughes, Claude Mills, Isabelte Sanger and Robert Kembel.

TORRANCE

Now let the PEOPLE SPEAK

LAWYERS prepared a Bill, designed, planned, intended for one sole purpose: to cut the people off from sources of advice upon business matters in which matters of law are involved, except one source—GO TO A LAWYER and pay him a fee.

LAWYERS introduced it in the Legislature, LAWYER-politicians "pushed it through" to a LAWYER-governor, who signed it.

Now let the PEOPLE say whether they want government "By the lawyers, of the lawyers and for the lawyers."

If you want to PAY for it, vote for it.

If you want your banker, your employer, your business friend to feel free to make a practice, as he does now, of giving you practical advice on ordinary business law—without committing a CRIME—

How Does Holbar Make Girl Cry?

No one ever hears what Allen Holubar is saying to Dorothy Phillips when he occasionally adorns to a corner of his stage and engages in earnest conversation with her. If she emerges from the conference with tears streaming down her face quite ready for the camera, no one has any idea whether Mr. Holubar has said something to her that has roused memories that were filled with grief, or whether he has assumed an air of ferocity or cruelty. When she leaves him with the gleam of happiness in her eye and strikes a pose that is required for the next "shot," there is no way of telling whether he excited her mirth by telling her a humorous yarn or promising to buy her a new car.

But maybe, after all, he simply outlines to her the exact motions she is to express for a certain scene for Dorothy Phillips is an emotional actress of unusual capabilities. In her starring role in "Hurricane's Gal," Mr. Holubar's production for First National, which will be shown at the Torrance theatre, Sunday and Monday, November 5 and 6, Miss Phillips is displaying a range of facial expressions that makes a full demand on the entire capabilities of her remarkable screen personality. She has the part of a wild, untamed girl of the sea whose Irish father has left her a heritage of hate and lawlessness. The warm, romantic blood of her Spanish mother courses through her veins. She roams the seas with a rag doll, a monkey and a goat as her principal companions, and controls the ship with ferocity that is usually balanced by abundant good humor.

The action of the story takes place partly in the air and on the sea, and the struggle between love and hate of a lover she believes has treacherously deceived her carry her through a line of emotions that still make us wonder—"What does Allen Holubar say to her when he is preparing her for a scene?"

OFFICERS ENTERTAIN CLASS

Officers of the young people's class of the M. E. church, entertained the class at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Georges on south Arlington, Saturday evening.

The home was very artistically decorated in the Halloween colors, with ghosts, gibbils, black cats and etc.

Fortune telling and games were the amusements of the evening. All attending had a most enjoyable evening.

Architects R. S. Tuttle and C. W. Winslow are working on the plans for First M. E. Church, and will soon have final specifications ready for work. The new plans are an improvement over the preliminary ones.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS CARD PARTY

The second card party of a series of parties was held Monday evening by the Torrance Royal Neighbors of America, at the McKinley Inn, on Cota avenue.

A large crowd attended, and the home of Mrs. McKinley was beautifully decorated, with the colors of orange and black, appropriate for the hallowe'en season.

Mrs. E. E. McMaster was awarded ladies first prize, Mrs. J. T. McMaster second and Mrs. James L. King, consolation prize.

Edward Curran, won gentleman's first, A. Zahradnick, second and James L. King, the consolation.

The hot doughnuts furnished by Mrs. Summerill, of the Corn Products Refining Company, were enjoyed, with sandwiches and coffee.

ADDS SODA FOUNTAIN TO PLACE

Leave it to "Tom" B. Bartlett, the well-known confectioner to adopt up-to-date methods to make his place of business on El Prado street attractive. This well known maker of the noted "Black Walnut Cream Kisses" that took second prize at the recent county fair at Pomona, has recently installed a modern soda fountain to his candy store and for the especial benefit of the ladies is having erected some very attractive booths, where light lunches and cool drinks are to be served.

The children attending were, Margaret and Millie Lincoln, Happy and Bill O'Brien, Henneth and Wendel Leatherman, Inez and Charles Smith, Russel Quigley and Raymond Schumacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Meager of Los Angeles, and Dr. Anderson were over Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Haynes. They attended the Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George's Saturday evening.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will hold a bazaar and food sale in the Isestein block, in the room vacated by the Tolson Transfer Co., on Nov. 18th. The Ladies have many beautiful and useful articles that will be appropriate for Xmas gifts, also well rooted plants, home made candy, and parcel post booths, remember the date, Nov. 18.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Schumacher and mother Mrs. Helen O'Leary of north Arlington entertained ten children Tuesday evening at a surprise Halloween party given in honor of their son and grandson Raymond. The children all came dressed in their ghostly costumes, with lanterns and enjoyed a dance around a bon-fire. They were also amused with a magic lantern show, and a game hunting peanuts, and pinning the tail on the donkey. Refreshments of doughnuts, ice cream apples, black and orange jelly beans were served.
